)
GEORGE DAVID SALUM III)

MOTION FOR JUDICIAL NOTICE OF STIPULATED FACT

COMES NOW the United States of America, by and through the United States Attorney for the Northern District of Florida and the undersigned Assistant United States Attorney, and consistent with the oral argument of record, moves this Honorable Court to take judicial notice of the following stipulated facts:

The "Alabama Computer Crimes Act," set forth in the Code of Alabama, Section 41-9-601 et seq, was a law in effect in the State of Alabama during the time alleged in Count Two of the indictment, namely on or about July 3, 2004.

That Act made it a violation of the laws of the State of Alabama for any person to willfully request, obtain, or seek to obtain criminal offender record information under false pretenses, or to wilfully communicate or seek to communicate criminal offender record information to any agency or person except those authorized to receive it. That law further made it a violation of the laws of the State of Alabama for any person to knowingly communicate or seek to communicate criminal offender record information, except in accordance with the law, that is, to authorized agencies or persons for law enforcement use.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 9th day of November, 2005.

GREGORY R. MILLER
United States Attorney
